For World Book Day we will be having a 'Dress to Express' day. The children can come to school wearing something that expresses part of their identity, what they enjoy or a book they have loved. They could come dressed as their favourite character from a book such as Harry Potter or Wally from 'Where's Wally?'. Alternatively they could wear a sports kit or Brownie or Beavers uniform. Perhaps they could bring a non-fiction book or a magazine which features this.

Children might just love a particular colour, art or be really interested in a certain country so could come dressed to express that culture or climate.
